Evaluation & Awards

Priorities for Funding

- First Priority: Arts organizations like symphonies, galleries, theaters, art guilds, choral societies, dance companies, folk art societies, writer's groups, and arts festivals, among others. Note that these entities may not be eligible if receiving other funding through the N.C. Arts Council.
- Second Priority: Arts learning and arts in education programs conducted by qualified artists. These can be artist residencies in the schools, afterschool or summer camps or adult arts learning classes.
- Third Priority: Civic, municipal or community-based organizations providing quality art experiences for the greater community.

Priorities for Funding

- Of the allotment the LCAC receives, 42% must be spent on programming that affects BIPOC (Black/African American, Asian, Hispanic/Latino, and Native American) cultures.
- Multicultural Programs and Organizations will receive special funding consideration.
 - To be considered a multicultural organization, the mission must be focused on supporting BIPOC cultures.
 - To be considered a multicultural program, the program must be conducted by artists, ensembles or organizations of color.
